

PANIC LUDIC

Absurd, post-apocalyptic object dressage

The world after the Apocalypse. Everything lies in ruins, civilization has crumbled, the future is uncertain.

A man wanders around in a desolate landscape. With what he has saved, he tackles his loneliness and the everyday ugliness. First and foremost for himself, but gradually for everyone in search of a last shred of beauty.

Determined, this fragile hero tries to save what seemed lost, to let it shine one last time.

PANIC LUDIC is a post-apocalyptic dressage act, a tribute to the friendship between human and object, and a visual manifesto that defies the test of time.
